

Authentic Cowichan Knitting

Thousands of years before the arrival of the Europeans, to battle the harshness of the North American coastal winters, the Coast Salish women had established a strong tradition of weaving woolen and cedar clothing for their families.

Owning the world's ultimate hand-knit sweater & accessories is so easy. All you have to do is send along your measurements, animal pattern choice, and whether you would like a pullover or zipper. The knitters have their own distinct patterns, so every sweater is unique. The traditional three-tones of white, grey & black are used to make the sweaters. Every sweater has pockets and a collar. With a little care your sweater will last a lifetime.

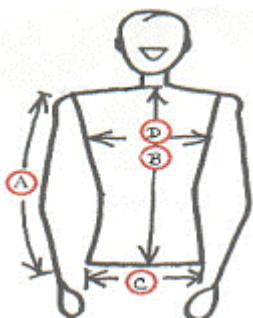

How to Measure (round up to the nearest INCH):

A: Arm Length– stretch your arm out to the side parallel with the floor, and measure from your shoulder to wrist

B: Body Length– from the nap of neck to your waist where you would like the sweater to end

C: Waist Circumference: measure the largest part of your waist

D: Chest Circumference: measure the largest part of your chest

A: ARM _____ INCHES

B: BODY _____ INCHES

C: WAIST _____ INCHES

D: CHEST _____ INCHES

Animal Patterns: just to name a few, Eagle, Thunderbird, Whale, Bear, Deer, Butterfly, Hummingbird... just ask because we can probably do most native animals.
